

IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes (continuous internal assessment and end-semester assessment) have brought in considerable improvement in examination management system of the institution

Response:

With the end goal of bringing reasonableness, objectivity, straight forwardness and brief redressal of understudies complaints, Abhilashi University is persistently working, towards changes in the assessment techniques and cycles.

The Abhilashi University has embraced the arrangement of consistent evaluation for surveying the understudies in examinations. In similarity with this work on, following methods of appraisal are followed:

1. The assessment framework involves Class Tests, Assignments/Quizzes, first and second Mid-Term assessments, End-Term assessment, Practicals, Project work and Seminars.
2. First Term and second term assessments are led by the Deans of the Faculties in counsel with COE. The Deans of the Faculties present the honor records to the COE after assessment.
3. End-Term Examination is led totally by the Controller of Examination.
4. Students who come up short in a specific paper/Practical are needed to return in the comparing odd/even semester.

Component to manage assessment related complaints:

Component to manage assessment related complaints is straightforward, time bound and effective. Students can apply to the COE for any issues in the assessment of their answer scripts. On the off chance that a student feels that in End-Term Examination, at least one of the answer(s) in his answer sheet(s) has/have not been assessed or that there is any error blunder in adding up to the imprints granted to him by the examiner he/she within 21 days of assertion of result can apply to the COE for re-checking of his/her answer script. In the event that on reevaluating a mistake in any regard is found, the equivalent is redressed.

The University keeps its assessment framework open for alterations and in this manner reinforces it now and again, guaranteeing the framework idiot proof and address' the complaints of understudies assuming any. The changes in every one of the exercises of the assessment framework are kept at standard with the changes moved by the administrative bodies.
